The First National Bank has been admitted to the New-York Clearing-House by an almost unanimous vote, and on and after Saturday will make its exchanges direct.

The Manufacturers' National Bank has declared a dividend of 5 per cent, free of Government tax, payable on demand.

The Hudson River Railroad Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent, payable on the 14th inst.

The Boston Evening Traveller says:

The money market is not at all disturbed by the new "Five-twenty" loan. Call loans were easily made at 6 per cent. Mercantile notes of short date are taken by the banks at 7 per cent. In the outside market the range for the last three and four months' names is from 7 to 9.

A London letter of Sept. 22, says:

The chief business event of the week has been the sale of $100,000 six per cent bonds of the Erie Railroad Company, by the house of J. S. Morgan & Co., the successors of George Peabody & Co. The subscription price is seventy-five, and the bonds are to be redeemed at par in ten years. The holders, meanwhile to be retained the right of converting them into stock. The issue is supposed to consist of four capital stocks.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids if the interests of the Corporation require it.
